- Messages may be left for guests by contacting the office during regular office hours.
- During your event, you will have the contact number for the Director on Duty for any emergencies or service needs.
- Guests may receive mail using the above address with the guest and group name.

Methods of Payment

- Payment is due upon arrival unless previous arrangements have been made.
- One payment for the entire group is expected.
- Cash or Checks are accepted. A minimum service charge of $25 will be charged for returned checks.
- The reservation deposit is non-refundable; however, it can be applied to the payment if the actual attendance is at least seventy-five percent of the projected number.

Meeting Room and Cabin Assignments

- Meeting Room and Cabin assignments will be made after all scheduled groups have submitted their guaranteed number of guests.
- Preliminary assignments can be determined one month prior to arrival for groups projecting more than 400 guests.
- Assignments are made to best meet the needs of all scheduled groups. An effort will be made to meet specific requests; however, the center does not guarantee the assignment of cabins or meeting rooms requested or used during previous visits.
- Meeting rooms are equipped with chairs and a table. Meeting rooms can be set up by our staff for an additional charge. Additional tables and additional equipment is available for rental.
- The group will be charged a minimum $25 fine per building where there is evidence of food and drinks in the cabins or meeting rooms upon departure.
- Excessive cleaning requirements (ex. toilet paper rolling or food waste) will result in extra charges to the group.

Dining Hall Procedures

Dining in the John Wilkinson Hall

- Meals regularly scheduled at 7:30 A.M., 12:00 P.M. and 5:30 P.M.
- Meal times can be altered for an additional fee at your request or at the discretion of the Director.
- The Center reserves the right to alter meal times to maximize the efficiency of serving and dining hall capacity.
- Each meal is served at the assigned time; the entire group is expected to be prompt for the serving of the meal.
- Groups may be charged extra if late for meals.
- Groups with 200 or more guests must provide crowd control at dining hall entrances.
- Guests are required to wear shirts and shoes in the dining hall; swimsuits are prohibited.
- Meals are served buffet style in generous portions. Second helpings will be served only after all groups of guests have been served.
- Special menu needs, i.e. numerous vegetarian guests or special dietary requirements, can be requested by contacting the center at least 5 working days prior to your arrival.
- At the conclusion of each meal, each guest should:
  - Clean up their eating area and place their plates and trash in the appropriate place
  - Push in their chair
  - Exit the dining hall to make room for other guests

Safety Procedures

Security

- Upon check-in, you will receive an emergency contact number for the Director on duty.
- In case of an emergency during the night and you cannot get in touch with the Director on Duty, Directors reside in the two homes immediately outside the facility entrance gate.
- The gate to the facility remains unlocked while guests are present; however, the gate will be closed and secured but not locked at night.
- Guests are encouraged to remain at the facility after the gates are closed. Please inform the Director of any guests arriving late at night.
- The Director must be informed of any visitors not registered with the group.
- Security lights are stationed throughout the facility; however, we encourage guests to bring a flashlight.
- Guests are encouraged to stay on walkways, roads and major paths to ensure their safety.
- Adult supervision of youth is required at all times.
- Shirts, pants and shoes must be worn at all times when guests are outside their cabin.
- Cabins and meeting rooms do not have keys for general usage. Securing valuable items is the responsibility of the guest. The center is not liable for lost or stolen items.
- All campers must be in a group activity after 10:00 PM

Safety

- Immediately notify the Director or center staff in case of a serious accident or injury.
- The group agrees to hold the center harmless from and against all claims, actions, damages, liabilities, and expenses of any kind or nature arising from any personal or bodily injury and/or damage to property arising from the group's usage of the facilities.
- Your group should provide your own first aid supplies and medical staff.
- In the event of a severe emergency, the closest hospital is Piedmont Newton in Covington. The hospital is approximately 15 miles from the facility.
- In the event of a life endangering emergency, guests may dial 9-1-1. Group leaders should immediately contact the Director on duty if 9-1-1 is called so that we can be aware and direct the emergency personnel to the proper location.
- Group leaders should communicate with their participants a plan of action in case of emergency.
- In case of a significant injury: Remain calm, leave someone with the victim while you go to get help, and do not attempt to move the victim.
- In case of a fire: remain calm, account for all individuals in the group, do not go back into the burning building. Report the fire to a staff member.
- In case of severe weather: remain calm, take cover, and go inside the nearest building but stay away from the windows. Remain in the building until the weather has cleared or you have received instruction from the center staff.
- In case of a power outage: remain inside the building until power is regained or you are given instructions by a center staff member.

Recreational Activities

Overview

- Activities can be requested through the Reservation Form or a follow-up contact.
- Requesting additional activities may increase the rate for participants.

You will be taking part in a challenge course program that is physically and mentally challenging, but it is designed to be safe and within the capability of anyone in reasonably good health. If you know of any physical limitations that will limit your ability to participate in the course, please let your facilitator know.

The Georgia FFA-FCCLA Center operates under a "Challenge by Choice" philosophy, which means that you have the option to select your personal level of challenge in all activities. During the program, we will provide a challenging setting in which to expand your limits, while supporting your personal boundaries. As with any physical activity, there is some risk of injury. To minimize the potential for accidents, it is important to listen to the facilitators and follow their instructions. Please ask questions if you do not understand directions.

"I fully understand that my participation in the challenge / ropes course activities facilitated by the Georgia FFA-FCCLA Center and all of their employees and instructors could result in injury or death. I do voluntarily choose to participate in these activities. Also, my participation requires that I am of good physical condition and I do hereby accept all responsibility for my own physical well-being, and I do not have any medical conditions that will prohibit me from safely participating or will put me at risk of injury. Being fully aware of the degree of risk and injury to myself, I hereby release and hold harmless the Georgia FFA-FCCLA Center and all of their employees and instructors from any claim, action, damage, liability, and expenses of any kind resulting from accident or injury incurred while participating in these activities."
